

REVIEWS OF RAILWAYWOMEN

“An unbiased, academically excellent and very entertaining work of history. Beautifully written from what has clearly been meticulous research. The author’s concern for honesty and justice shines forth.” ADRIAN VAUGHAN (RAILWAY HISTORIAN AND PROLIFIC AUTHOR)

“Every now and again a truly memorable book on labour history is published. Railway-women is just such a book. It is a scrupulously documented and carefully researched work ... in short, it is an irreplaceable chronicle of railway history with great relevance to current issues in the industry. A fascinating read.” LABOUR RESEARCH MAGAZINE

“An entirely new contribution to railway history, this important book fills a large gap in the literature, and is enriched by valuable oral testimony.”
DR TERRY GOURVISH, LSE (RAILWAY ACADEMIC AND AUTHOR)

“A truly wonderful book. A brilliant record of the emerging role of women in our society.”
RT HON TONY BENN

“Wojtczak has a rare talent which combines rigorous academic research with an immense gift for storytelling. Unique photographs, cartoons, newspaper cut-outs and comprehensive statistics elegantly support the text. The volume can be randomly opened on any page where an engrossing read invariably awaits.” MICHAL BONCZA, THE MORNING STAR

“Fascinating reading. Helena’s style keeps you interested and wanting to read more. Strongly recommended.” PAT HAMMOND (EDITOR OF A RAILWAY MAGAZINE)

“Such tales, such adventures and such achievements against the odds. Heroically researched, illuminatingly written and entertaining. I loved it.”
DR DALE SPENDER (FEMINIST HISTORIAN AND EDUCATOR)

“I am very impressed.” GEORGE OTTLEY (RAILWAY HISTORIAN)

“Superb documentary evidence. Future historians will see this work as the definitive history of women in the railway industry.”
DR GILLIAN REYNOLDS, COVENTRY UNIVERSITY (RAILWAY AUTHOR)

“This authoritative account of the contribution that women have made to Britain’s railways is long overdue. It was worth waiting for.”
GRAHAME BOYES (RAILWAY & CANAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY)

“A wonderfully complete picture of railwaywomen in war and peace.”
GAIL BRAYBON, BA, MA, (HISTORIAN OF WOMEN’S WORK ON THE FIRST WORLD WAR)

“Meticulous archival research. Traces the trials, tribulations and triumphs of women’s attempts to earn a fair and decent living in this male-dominated industry.”
DR GERRY HOLLOWAY, SUSSEX UNIVERSITY (HISTORIAN)

“This book is a joy to read. The women are brought to life in a welter of colourful anecdotes. Seldom has serious social research been so thoroughly entertaining.”
RICHARD ELMORE (LOCAL REVIEWER)

“The definitive guide to the place of women in the history of Britain’s railways.”
THE BRIGHTON ARGUS

“A deeply satisfying work. It exceeds all expectations with its thorough and accessible approach. The author is to be congratulated.”
DR JO STANLEY (HISTORIAN OF WOMEN PIRATES AND SEAFARERS)

“A painstakingly researched and highly readable book that tells an important story that has all too often been ignored in the past.” TONY DONAGHEY, PRESIDENT OF THE RMT
